

Macomb Medicus Journal of the Macomb County Medical Society

The Macomb Medicus is the official quarterly journal of the Macomb County Medical Society. It is a full-color glossy magazine published both electronically and in hard copy format. It is a valued news source for our 500 plus physician members of all specialties and their staff throughout Macomb County. In addition to members the Macomb Medicus is sent to hospital executives, Michigan State Medical Society staff, other county medical society staff, and healthcare related businesses/organizations in Macomb County. The Macomb Medicus is read by an impressive cross section of the healthcare community and is electronically available on our website at macombcms.org.

The Macomb Medicus offers insightful articles covering current issues affecting patient care, practice management, and legal matters. It also provides member physicians with updates on federal, state and local legislative issues, local hospital news, information from the county and state health departments, and notices of upcoming events and CME programs.

Advertising is accepted subject to editorial supervision. All ads are randomly placed depending on availability of space, except for inside or back covers. Competing businesses will NOT be placed on the same or facing pages.
